Mary's Place continues fight against sexual assault with annual gala, Lip Sync competition

Savannah, Ga. (AP) - Mary's Place of the Coastal Empire will host the annual gala to help raise money for the organization's continued efforts to help sexual assault victims.
The "Find Your Voice" Gala and Lip Sync Competition is an idea spawned out of the team at Mary's Place's desire to do something different for their annual fundraising event this year. In previous years, they've centered their gala fundraisers behind other themes like nonperishable foods or a St. Patrick's Day-themed one. This year's lip sync competition is taking a turn from the 1980s film classic, "Risky Business."
